Villa Los Arcos is located in Sierra Cabrera, a beautiful mountain range located in the province of Almeria, in the region of Andalusia, in southern Spain. It is known for its stunning natural landscapes, rugged terrain, and stunning views of the surrounding area. Sierra Cabrera is located close to the Mediterranean coast, just 10 minutes from the town of Turre and 15 from the well-known beaches of Mojácar, offering a unique combination of mountainous and coastal settings.

This charming detached villa, conveniently located within walking distance of the heart of Cabrera, is home to the most stunning views and sunsets. A private driveway leads to this charming villa surrounded by Moorish arches so typical of this area.

On the main floor you have a newly renovated kitchen completely with Silestone worktops, open to the dining room and the spacious and bright living room with fireplace for the cooler winter nights. Also on this level is the master bedroom with en-suite bathroom and a utility room with washing machine and adjacent bathroom.

The dining room opens onto a patio with built-in barbecue and the elegant staircase leading to the two bedrooms on the upper level.

The outdoor areas offer terraces on three levels, perfect for relaxing with a drink or eating while taking in the stunning panoramic views of the mountains or enjoying Cabrera's spectacular sunsets and starry night skies.

A very private kidney-shaped swimming pool (8x3 metres) which can be heated for the colder months is the perfect
